

DOING TIME WITH GOD

After being robbed and shot at an ATM on his way to work in 1988, Bill Dyer was locked up in a prison of anger, hatred, and resentment.

While railing against God, a journey of faith began that has since come full circle – out of personal darkness and into the light of God's healing presence in prisons.

Join Bill in a candid conversation about lessons learned on the journey.

Sharing stories for purposes of peace

Understanding why we miss God's presence

Following The Way of Jesus

Escaping our inner prisons

Receiving God's love for healing and forgiveness

Breaking through mental walls of unforgiveness
